

Teacher of Food Technology

Salary: MPS or UPS (suitable for ECTs)

To start in September 2022 (or sooner)

Kingsway Park High School was established 10 years ago, and we are now a very popular oversubscribed school. We have almost 1300 students (Year 7-11) and 190 staff. We are very proud of the high-quality facilities, resources, and environment that we provide for both staff and students.

We are currently looking to appoint a Teacher of Food Technology who is committed to high quality teaching and learning, dedicated to providing the very best experiences for students, and are passionate about inspiring young people.

This is an excellent opportunity for an ambitious, motivated professional to join our growing team of committed staff who share a common drive and sense of purpose in raising the profile of technology and maintaining high expectations of all our students. The successful candidate will be given lots of professional support within the department and the school. Join us in our ambition of creating a generation passionate about food technology.

What you'll need to succeed

Applications are welcomed from both experienced and inexperienced, self-driven Food Technology teachers with a real passion for their subject.

It is extremely important that all staff members have high expectations of themselves and the students they teach and share our ethos that every student is valued. We want staff to be the very best that they could be.

To have an informal, confidential discussion and to find out how to apply, please contact Paula Read at Hays Education on 07966403947 or paula.read@hays.com
Visits to the school can be organised by contacting Hays Education.

The closing date for all applications is 14th March at 9am 2022
Interviews will be held between 16th and 22nd March

The school is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. Appointment to this post is subject to an enhanced Disclosure and Barring and background check.