

Job Description: Teacher of History

Job Title	Teacher of History
Responsible to/for	To: Curriculum Leader of History For: Outcomes in KS3 and KS4 History
Grade/Hours	Teacher's terms and conditions (full-time) MPS/UPS
Job Purpose	To teach History across years 7 to 11 To contribute to and raise achievement standards in History
Dimensions	To be responsible for contributing to an effective and successful History department.
Principle Accountabilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To plan and deliver high quality lessons in History in line with the KP Method</li> <li>Track and monitor students' progress against target grades at KS3 and KS4</li> <li>To consistently deliver high quality lessons in KS3 and KS4 History</li> <li>Assess students' progress effectively/accurately against data</li> <li>To contribute to creating high-quality long term and medium-term plans.</li> <li>To contribute to raising the profile of History whole school.</li> <li>To work under the direction and guidance of the Curriculum Lead of History.</li> <li>To be aware of and comply with policies and procedures relating to child protection, health &amp; safety and security, confidentiality, and data protection</li> </ul>
Characteristics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To have the skills, experience, knowledge, and ability to plan, deliver, and contribute to a forward-thinking History curriculum</li> <li>To have the skills to inspire, develop, and motivate students.</li> <li>The ability to converse at ease and provide advice in accurate spoken English is an essential requirement of this post.</li> </ul>
Performance Measures	Students meet or exceed their targets Lesson observations/ school quality assurance
Organisational Chart

