

Job Description: Teacher of IT, Business and Finance

Job Title	Teacher of IT, Business and Finance
Responsible to/for	To: Curriculum Leader of IT, Business and Finance
Grade/Hours	Teacher's terms and conditions (full-time) MPS/UPS
Job Purpose	To contribute to raising achievement standards in the newly formed IT, Business and Finance department from years 7-11.
Dimensions	To contribute and enrich an effective and successful IT, Business and Finance department.
Principle Accountabilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To plan and deliver high quality lessons in the newly formed IT, Business and Finance Department. Track and monitor students' progress against target grades Assess students' progress effectively/accurately To assist in the creation of high-quality long- and medium-term plans. To be aware of and comply with policies and procedures relating to child protection, health & safety and security, confidentiality, and data protection To contribute to a cohesive, effective, and thriving IT, Business and Finance Department. To be willing to explore the ways in which finance education can be embedded into KS3 curriculum delivery
Characteristics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To have the skills, experience, knowledge, and ability to contribute to a new IT, Business and Finance department. To have the skills to inspire, develop, and motivate others. The ability to converse at ease and provide advice in accurate spoken English is an essential requirement of this post. To be excited to work cohesively to support and link ICT, Business and Finance in the curriculum offer – and to Careers education as a whole
Performance Measures	Standards in IT, Finance and Business rise in all year groups and in all cohorts of students Students meet or exceed their targets

Organisational Chart

