

Job Description: Teacher of Science

Job Title	Teacher of Science
Responsible to/for	To: Curriculum Leader of Science
Grade/Hours	Teacher's terms and conditions (full-time) MPS/UPS
Job Purpose	To contribute to raising achievement standards in the science department from years 7-11.
Dimensions	To contribute and enrich an effective and successful science department.
Principle Accountabilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To plan and deliver high quality lessons in the science department.</li> <li>Track and monitor students' progress against target grades</li> <li>Assess students' progress effectively/accurately</li> <li>To assist in the creation of high-quality long- and medium-term plans.</li> <li>To be aware of and comply with policies and procedures relating to child protection, health &amp; safety and security, confidentiality, and data protection</li> <li>To contribute to a cohesive, effective, and thriving science department.</li> </ul>
Characteristics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>To have the skills, experience, knowledge, and ability to contribute to a science department.</li> <li>To have the skills to inspire, develop, and motivate others.</li> <li>The ability to converse at ease and provide advice in accurate spoken English is an essential requirement of this post.</li> </ul>
Performance Measures	Standards in Science rise in all year groups and in all cohorts of students Students meet or exceed their targets

Organisational Chart

